

A series of workshops that you don't want to miss will be facilitated by

Penny Lund

Riverdale Professional Development Room

3:30 pm - 5:30 pm

□ Come Create a Writing Satchel for your Students in Grades 3-6 Wednesday, April 14

- You will need to bring a large brown grocery bag, a pair of teacher scissors and a glue stick to this workshop in order to participate. There will be no extra materials provided.
- Learn to create a year-long writing satchel for your students to use as a review and a reference tool during the school year.
- All of the writing skills are correlated with the Illinois Assessment Frameworks.

 PLEASE NOTICE CHANGE IN DATE BELOW *****

□ Looking for Great Resources to Prepare for the 2011 ISAT Now?!! Thursday, April 29

- Teachers - are you looking for free resources that you can use to post on the walls and in the minds of your students for reading and math? Then this workshop is for you. Come learn about Penny's Picks for reading, math and writing. I have found PowerPoint's, posters, task cards and handouts.
- Create an Action Plan for next year to insure success for your students on the ISAT.

Please email Penny Lund at lundp@district148.net if you are interested in attending.